

IT'S NOT "BUSINESS AS USUAL" ANYMORE.

How will your business handle operations in a COVID-19 world?

If you are one of the many small business owners struggling to find a way forward in this new world we are living in, you are not alone. A FEMA study shows that 40-60% of small businesses fail to reopen after a disaster, like the global pandemic we are currently experiencing.

We know you are worried, stressed, and feeling at a loss as to how to deal with social distancing requirements, the financial impact caused by government shutdowns, and the rapid and volatile change in consumer demand.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP.

Our team at Beyond Benchmarks is ready to help you navigate the rough terrain surrounding the reopening your business during the global pandemic. With our help, yours can be one of the 50-60% of small businesses that not only survives but thrives during this present disaster.

Our team of experienced business analysts will help you strategically transform your business by:

- Developing an understanding of changing customer demand and projected trends
- Configuring new process workflows, space determinations, and staffing models to adhere to social distancing guidelines and promote staff and customer health and safety
- Providing financial insights based on demand projections and capital spending needs
